JAMIE RAVEN

Jamie Raven is a Magician and Illusionist, who burst onto an unsuspecting world during the 9th series of Britain's Got Talent. His magic amazed audiences and even made the famously magic loathing Simon Cowell exclaim, "I now actually believe in magic!" on route to finishing as runner up and in his own words as "Highest placed Human"

His online videos from Britain's Got Talent and other subsequent performances have now been seen over 800 million times, making him one of the most-watched magicians in the world today.

Following his enormous success on Britain's Got Talent, Jamie went on to headline "The Illusionists" at The Shaftesbury Theatre, which went on to break the box office record and in doing so became the most successful Magic show in the history of London's West End. He later returned to the cast for a run in Abu Dhabi and Dubai, where the show sold out every ticket in a 3-week run.

To date, he has taken his solo touring shows across 27 countries, playing over 150 different venues, and he has been invited all over the world to perform for corporate clients, celebrities and Royalty, including an invitation to St James's Palace to perform privately for HRH Prince Charles as part of his Christmas Celebrations.

The official range of 5 Jamie Raven Magic Sets were released and sold in Harrods, House of Fraser, Sainsbury's and over 200 other retailers in the UK. Which led to the opening of the Jamie Raven "Making Magic", Shop, School and Theatre, where he performed over 280 shows in his own purpose-built venue as he continues in his quest to inspire the next generation of magicians.
