

Live Music Quiz

The interactive musical game show thrilling audiences with a unique theatrical performance.

The Live Music Quiz is the ultimate combination of a TV game show and a live music performance – all expertly delivered by our West End singers and musicians. This performance of epic proportions has all the production value that you might expect while sitting in the audience of your favourite TV game show and a theatre: all at the same time!

Featuring world-class vocal performances, live music, and an enthralling game waiting to be played; the show ingeniously combines several different genres using remarkable high-end staging and production throughout. This exciting theatrical event brings together technology and theatre ensuring that the audience will be entertained to within an inch of their lives!

The show runs in 2 x 45-minute halves with an intermission either during daytime or over an evening meal (before and after dessert). Each half of the show will have its own winning player giving everyone a chance of taking home one of our life-changing prizes!

The audience compete against each other in up to 10 different rounds using our state of the art answering platform. This means that guests play along on their phone in real time and see where they are on the leaderboard – whilst simultaneously enjoying the genius of the show.

The Live Music Quiz is joined by our talented production team. Everything you would expect from a professional theatrical production is included - including all staging, set, lighting and AV. It looks so good that everyone will feel like they are watching their favourite TV game show!
